A. Fill in the blanks. (3 marks)
1. Microliths were the small and sharp tools used in the ________________ period.
2. Places where stone was found and where people made tools are called ________________.
3. The axe- head was tied to a ________________ which made it a more efficient tool.
4. ________________ have found some of the things that early humans used and evidence that they lived there.
5. Numerous rock paintings have been found from ________________ in Madhya Pradesh.
6. The paints used in the rock paintings were perhaps made by ________________ various rocks and minerals till they became powder.

B. Write True or False.
1. Humans have not evolved much through the millions of years that mark their existence on earth.
2. Early humans spent nights up on the trees or in caves and rock shelters.
3. Palaeolithic period is divided into three parts – Early, Middle and Late Palaeolithic.
4. In the Neolithic Age, the stones were polished to sparkle.
5. Quartz was a type of stone widely used to make tools.
6. Early humans kept a fire burning at the entrance of their caves to keep themselves warm and cosy.

C. Give one-word answer.
1. This was one of the greatest discoveries made by the early humans.
2. Humans generally settled close to rivers so that they could get an easy supply of this.
3. The Stone Age period that lasted from 8000 BCE to 4000 BCE.
4. A type of stone that was used to make tools.
5. A place where out of 750 caves, 500 have rock paintings.