

ADVERTISEMENT:

Eligible candidates are requested to apply for the posts of 1) One Project Assistant I and 2) One Project Assistant II in the research project titled, 'Sustainable Integrated Farming Systems for Climate Change Mitigation and Adaptation' (SIFS-CLIM) (BMLEH, 2822 NIPS 03) funded by the German Federal Ministry of Agriculture, Food and Regional Identity (BMLEH) through Forschungszentrum Jülich.

Essential qualifications required:

- 1. Project Assistant I – First-class M.Sc. in Zoology/Equivalent, with prior research and field experience.
- 2. Project Assistant II – First-class M.Sc. in Zoology/Equivalent, with capacity for data curation and Statistical analysis.

Emoluments:

- 1. Project Assistant I — Rs. 25,000.00 per month (consolidated)
- 2. Project Assistant II — Rs. 25,000.00 per month (consolidated)

These positions are temporary for one year and may be extended based on candidates' performance until the project concludes. Interested Indian nationals should apply with a current CV detailing educational qualifications and relevant experience and supporting documents and a letter of intent to Prof. Amlan Das, Principal Investigator, Department of Zoology, University of Calcutta, 35 BC Road, Kolkata – 700 019, India, within 15 days from the date of advertisement. A soft copy of the application must be sent to dasamlan@yahoo.co.in