

LABDHI VIKRAM JAN SEVA TRUST (LVJST)

in collaboration with
DEPARTMENT OF BUDDHIST STUDIES
UNIVERSITY OF CALCUTTA

organises a National Seminar on

RUSHABHAYAN

Rishabhdev and the Shramanic Traditions of Eastern India

*Exploring the shared ethical and philosophical heritage of Jain and Buddhist
traditions
in Eastern India*

*"Ancient Paths,
Enduring Dialogues"*

Thursday,
24 September 2026

10:30 a.m.
onwards

The Senate Hall,
University of Calcutta
87/1, College Street, Kolkata – 73
West Bengal

KEY AREAS OF DISCUSSION

- Bhagwan Rishabhdev and Early Indian Civilization
- The Shramanic Tradition in Ancient India
- Jain and Buddhist Perspectives
- Eastern India as a Centre of Shramanic Heritage
- Textual and Historical Sources
- Philosophical and Ethical Themes
- Archaeological and Geographical Evidence
- Cultural, Literary and Societal Contributions
- Interdisciplinary Research and Future Directions
- Preservation of Shramanic Heritage in Eastern India

All are cordially invited

Scan for Registration