PROPOSES AMENDMENTS TO 'COMMITMENT RULES'

CCI to give errant firms extra time for corrective steps

MANU KAUSHIK
New Delhi, May 29

ON THE CARDS

THE COMPETITION COMMISSION of India (CCI) has proposed to relax the procedures for businesses facing its probes to offer corrective measures that could allow them to avoid penalty and prolonged litigation.

■ As per draft norms, deadline for firms to file "commitment applications" will be extended from 45 days to 60 days

■ There is proposal to allow firms 10 working days to fix deficiencies in commitment applications returned as incomplete

■ Regulator has proposed extending commitment proceedings to 180 working days from 130 days

According to draft amendments released for public consultations on Friday, the window for firms to file "commitment applications" pledging such voluntary measures is extended from 45 days to 60 days.

— depending on the turnover — for every commitment application. The antitrust regulator has also proposed increasing the overall timeline for commitment proceedings from 130 to 180 working days, with the possibility of further extensions where required.

within the stipulated period, after excluding such time, the inquiry under section 26 of the (Competition) Act against the commitment applicant shall resume," the document said.

Under the draft amendments, the CCI has proposed to provide further relaxation by allowing companies to rectify deficiencies in their commitment applications within 10 working days from the date the commission returns their incomplete application.

It's expected that the longer timeline will enable CCI to hold critical consultations, conduct detailed assessment of the commitments offered, and map out exactly how the remedies will be implemented.

As per the draft amendments, a commitment application that is complete in all respects will be taken up by the commission within 15 working days of its receipt, compared to the existing timeline of seven working days. This would give CCI more time to adequately assess the remedies offered by the companies before initiating the consultation process.

Crucially, the filing fee paid for the original application will be adjusted against the fees payable at the time of re-filing, thereby reducing the cost burden on entities. CCI charges a non-refundable filing fee of ₹2.5 lakh to ₹50 lakh

"In case the commitment proceedings are not concluded

A semiconductor substrate is the layer of chip on which circuits are built. The project, with an estimated investment of about $3.3 billion, represents one of the largest high-technology manufacturing investments in the country and first project with the engagement of computer chip major Intel. "The proposed project would be implemented in phases over a period of five-six years. It is expected to generate more than 1,800 direct high-skilled employment opportunities while creating significant indirect employment across the broader manufacturing and technology ecosystem," the statement said. The facility is proposed in the Bhubaneswar-Khurda region.

Niti unveils chip roadmap

OJASVI GUPTA
New Delhi, May 29

INDIA SHOULD AIM to build a $120-150 billion semiconductor value chain by 2035, with the Centre funding at least one-third of the required investments to de-risk projects and attract long-term capital, according to a report released by NITI Aayog's Frontier Tech Hub.

India's Semiconductor Industry, focuses on transitioning India from being merely a participant in the global semiconductor race to becoming a leader in areas where it can be strategically indispensable. It recommends focusing on advanced packaging, outsourced semiconductor assembly and testing (OSAT), semiconductor design, system architecture, and wide-bandgap materials such as Silicon Carbide (SiC) and Gallium Nitride (GaN), rather than directly competing with global leaders in advanced wafer fabrication. The report estimates that investments of $135-180 billion will be required over the next decade to achieve these targets. This includes spending on fabrication plants, advanced packaging facilities, design capabilities, and ecosystem infrastructure.
