Kannamma (name changed) is a 65-year-old widow from Jamunamarathur, a tribal village in the Jawadhi hills. After her husband passed away, she lives with her daughter and 13-year-old granddaughter. She worked as a daily wage farmer to support her family. However over the last year, she has been losing her eye-sight. Going blind forced her to stop working.

Our fieldworker at CMC is also from Jawadhi hills. He noticed Kannamma's condition and took her to the Vision Centre there. She was diagnosed with cataracts in both eyes. Within the next three days, she was brought to Schell Hospital and underwent free cataract surgery by the Department of Ophthalmology. The procedures were successful and her vision was fully restored.

Kannamma is deeply grateful for the care and compassion shown by the CMC team. The restoration of her sight has not only improved her independence but has brought renewed hope and joy to her and her family.
