Pre-Authorization

- When you check into a hotel or rent a car using your Global Pay Multi-Currency Card, the merchant may block/hold a certain amount on your card, this is called 'Pre-authorization', and the funds on your card will be blocked until the bills are fully settled
- As per Visa guidelines, Global Pay may not be able to return the pre-authorized amount for upto 30 days from the date it was authorized

Dynamic Currency Conversion

In certain countries, the overseas banks providing ATMs or POS machine payment services may offer to charge you in Indian Rupees, this concept is called as "Dynamic Currency Conversion (DCC)". This process allows the ATMs or the merchants to charge significantly higher mark-up on the currency conversion. The card issuer is not liable for "Dynamic Currency Conversion" related charges and will not be able to refund any such charges in case you proceed with DCC transaction and accept the DCC charges in the ATM/POS machines.
