NOTIFICATION

The Consortium of NLUs conducting two Mock Tests for UG & PG Candidates applied for CLAT 2027 as scheduled below:

1. First Mock Test 10 November, 2026

2. Second Mock Test 20 November, 2026

The Mock Tests are conducted online solely for practice and illustrative purposes for both UG and PG candidates. It is not an official examination paper.

The actual CLAT 2027 examination will be conducted offline, as notified, on Sunday, 6 December 2026, from 2:00 PM to 4:00 PM.

Important Information:

The format, structure, difficulty level, distribution of questions, and subject matter covered in this sample paper are indicative only. They are not intended to predict, replicate, or guarantee the format or pattern of the actual CLAT examination.

Participation in this practice test is entirely voluntary, and the sample paper is intended exclusively for academic practice and self-assessment.

Please note that this is only a sample paper. The Consortium will not entertain any queries regarding incorrect answers or any other matters related to the sample paper.

Instructions

1. The duration of the test is 2 hours.
2. The test consists of 120 questions. Each correct answer carries 1 mark, while each incorrect answer attracts a penalty of 0.25 marks. No marks will be deducted for unanswered questions.
3. Please ensure that you have a stable and reliable internet connection before attempting the sample questions to ensure a smooth testing experience.
4. The sample test is designed to be completed in a single sitting over a period of two hours. Once you have submitted your attempt, you can review your score and performance. You may retake the sample test as many times as you wish.
5. We recommend that you attempt the sample test in one sitting to simulate the actual examination environment. However, you may navigate between sections and questions as you deem appropriate.
6. Each set of questions in this sample paper is based on a passage. You are required to answer each question based on the information stated or implied in the corresponding passage and the question itself. Where more than one option appears to provide a partially correct answer, select the option that most accurately and comprehensively addresses the question.

7. Use the arrow buttons located at the bottom-right corner of the screen to navigate to the next or previous set of questions.
8. Once you have completed the test, click the 'Submit' button to submit your answers and review your score. Please do not click the 'Submit' button until you have completed your attempt, as doing so will end your current test session.
9. You may retake the sample test as many times as you wish for further practice and self-assessment.
