DETAILED REPORT

The students were asked to assemble in the 1st MSW classroom at 11.30 AM. The master of the ceremony of the day was Ms. Lavanya. The welcome address was given by Ms. Kalaivani. It was followed by the detailed guest profile of the resource person of the day, Dr.N.A. Arivukkarasi. The guest profile was delivered by Ms. Krithika.

To begin with the guest lecture, she first asked the students what degree they have pursued as an undergraduate. Most of the students seemed to have completed B.com. Some students were from science and arts backgrounds. The resource person said that this session will be more relevant for students from science and commerce backgrounds. Then the resource person asked the students why they choose MSW and what are their plans. Most of the students seemed to be interested to join as an employee in corporate companies. She told the students to connect their goals with happiness. Only when you do what you like, you will be satisfied and happy. She asked what is meant by the word business. She said business is profit-oriented and entrepreneurship is based on generating employment opportunities. A social entrepreneur is an entrepreneur who is bothered about social problems. For example, a business may just sell plastic pens with a profit motive even though plastic is a harmful substance. A social entrepreneur will sell eco-friendly wood-based pens because he/she is concerned about the environment.

Major problems in India are rural health, sanitation, child labor, unequal education, violence, the homeless population, elderly care, drug abuse, and stress. Chennai also has over one lakh homeless population. Pulinyanthoppu is famous for its cool lip (drug). Even 2nd std children are getting addicted to cool lip today in Pulinyanthoppu. It's made easily available there. When you stop the sales or control the addicts from using them, they often commit suicide or cut their nerves. This is how much they are addicted to the drug and control themselves away from consuming them for a couple of days. India is ranked in the 132nd position out of 191 countries in HDI. The human development index is based on health care, education, diseases, violence, and gender equality.

India spends most of its funds on the army and space to show its power to other countries. However, 40% of Indians are poor. 30% of the population in India lives below the poverty line. 1% of rich Indians own 40% of the total wealth generated in the country. The bottom 50% population share just 3% of total wealth. 400 million Indians are deprived of access to essential amenities like food, water, shelter, education sanitation, and healthcare.

In society, we have government, NGOs, civil society organizations, and philanthropists to help. Famous social work entrepreneurs are Mr. Gandhi, Mr. Vekataswamy, Mohammad Yunus, and Ela. A social entrepreneur is bringing in a business idea as a solution to a social problem. Some of the current famous social entrepreneurs are Archana Stalin-MyHarvest, Arunachalam Murugantham-Padman of India, Jiovio health care, the paperman foundation -accelerating India's trash economy, and green roots. At the end of the session, the resource person conducted a question-and-answer session. A vote of thanks was delivered by Mr. Sudhakar. A group photo was taken at the end of the session.

1. OUTCOMES:

- The students learned about the major issues in India.
- The students became more socially responsible and aim to have a friendly environment.
- The students understood the meaning of entrepreneur, social entrepreneur, and business.

DETAILED REPORT

The Employability Skills Workshop was a one-day program on 17th February 2023. The Resource persons for this session were Mr. Newton Abraham, APT Training Resources, and Mr. Aravindh. This session started with the Master of Ceremony Ms. Sanjanaa Gopinath of 2nd Year MSW, followed by a Welcome Address by Ms. Shanthini. R of 2nd Year MSW and the Guest Profile Reading by Mr. Allwin. S of 2nd Year MSW.

The Resource person Mr. Newton Abraham started the session by questioning the students, What is the purpose of the program? and the students came up with different answers such as developing skills, Life skills, To learn something new, placement training, etc. Then he asked the students about their expectations of the job and salary package they expect and everyone came up with different answers. Then he asked the students to write what qualities they would look for in recruiting a car driver for themselves and all the students shared their expectations. He also asked the students to write what would a recruiter expect from them while hiring for a five lakh CTC job and he told them to give the paper to the near one and check which quality they possess.

Then he started his session with current trending topics such as moonlight, and layoff. Nowadays, why do IT companies terminate 1000 employees every 2-3 months? Layoff in IT companies and the reason behind it, The need for work, and what would be the situation if one is not willing to upgrade his/her knowledge according to the current trend. And he listed out the reason for the unemployment and they are as follow,

1. High population and high competition
2. Change of mentality
3. Lack of confidence and consistency
4. Not in expectation level for the job.

Then he shared a story to explain the scenario that life runs fast and everyone has to face the critical part of life at one stage so one has to be prepared at the earliest to gain confidence to handle the situation. Then he gave a small glimpse into the different stages of the interview such as RESUME SCREENING, APTITUDE, GROUP DISCUSSION, and FACE TO FACE INTERVIEW, Which most recruiters use as a process to hire the best candidate and sort out the rest. Then he asked the students to do a self-analysis for themselves to know about themselves in detail.

The resource person gave a four-step process to be followed to improve communication skills.

- i. Write one page every day on your area of interest or passion.
- ii. Speak for two minutes on the topic and make a record of it and then make necessary corrections listening to the audio
- iii. Listen to something in your area of interest
- iv. Read out loud

The next topic provided guidance on preparing a resume. The resume should be crisp and short giving the best impression at first look and approximately an HR spend less than one minute seeing a resume. Then he gave guidelines on what are the questions to be answered in a resume to make a resume a complete one.

The resume should answer the following four questions:

1. Who are you?
2. What you have been doing(history)?
3. What do you want now?
4. What do you have?

The resume should contain only necessary details such as

- Name
- Mail. ID
- Photo
- Career Objectives (try framing your own objectives)
- Educational details (in chronological order)
- Skills
- Credentials
- Projects/Internships etc.

Guidelines were provided to write the Project section and they are as follows:

1. Title of the project

2. You need to tell the aim of the study
3. Get into the technical elements of the study
4. What did you do in the project

In the achievements section, certificates, seminars, and webinars can be added. In the resume instead of hobbies area of interest should be added. The area of interest must be in a sentence and related to the job description according to the company recruitment. No need for a declaration and reference. If multiple languages are known then one can add a language session else not mandatory three technical and Non-technical skills can be included in the resume. Objectives have to be changed according to the companies' Job descriptions. A resume should not run beyond one page and too much color need to be avoided.

Then the research person entered the aptitude section. Aptitude section questions will come from four topics.

1. Quantitative
2. Logical reasoning
3. Verbal
4. Technical

He told that verbal tests are conducted to check your English language.

He gave 20-words and asked the students to write the synonyms of the words starting with P for example

1. PICTURE – PHOTO
2. GOOD LOOKING – PRETTY

After the lunch break, once after recalling the previous session Ice breaking session started. And then he entered into the group discussion topic. The skills needed for the group discussion were communication skills, negotiation skills, and team skills. These skills were told by the students.

But the resource person pointed out some skills to be expected in the group discussion by the HR managers they are as follows.

- Communication.
- Your confidence.
- Initiative.

- Concluder.
- Observation Skills.
- Being a team player.
- Time efficient.

Then he discussed DO and DONT in the group discussion. The candidate should speak on relevant topics with relevant statistics, participate with the team, and maintain eye contact with all other candidates, a person opposes the response politely, oppose should be done only when u have relevant facts, do not speak repeatedly, you have to validate other points too, do not disrespect your team members, give space for your team members. The resource person concluded his session and the next hour was handed over to Mr. Aravind.

Mr. Aravind carried forward the session for the next one hour by providing techniques to solve certain speed maths sums and shared some questions being asked in the Ramco Cements interview and helped in solving the sums.

OUTCOME OF THE PROGRAM:

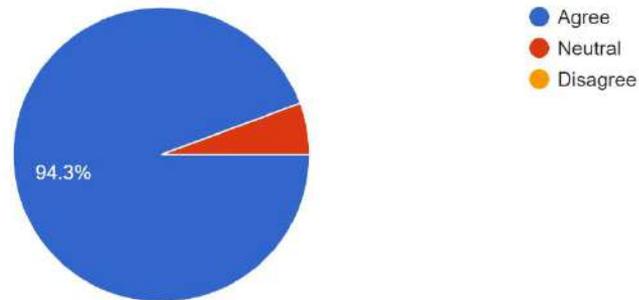

The workshop on employability skills was a very useful workshop for the students who are on the placement process and who are on the journey to face the placement process. The students got an insight into what the company expects from the new hires and how they should prepare themselves professionally for the placement drive.

The Resource person gave an overview of what is expected from the company's side and how a new hire should upgrade his/herself to face the competition. And then few guidelines were provided for the improvement of communication skills, how to work on creating a professional resume and the do's and don'ts of a Group discussion. Mr. Aravind in the next section provided some techniques to solve speed maths which would be helpful in clearing the aptitude section in an interview. Overall the workshop was a guiding path for the students in preparing themselves for the placement and future career steps.

- iv. Read out loud

The next topic provided guidance on preparing a resume. The resume should be crisp and short giving the best impression at first look and approximately an HR spend less than one minute seeing a resume. Then he gave guidelines on what are the questions to be answered in a resume to make a resume a complete one.

The resume should answer the following four questions:

1. Who are you?
2. What you have been doing(history)?
3. What do you want now?
4. What do you have?

The resume should contain only necessary details such as

- Name
- Mail. ID
- Photo
- Career Objectives (try framing your own objectives)
- Educational details (in chronological order)
- Skills
- Credentials
- Projects/Internships etc.

Guidelines were provided to write the Project section and they are as follows:

1. Title of the project

2. You need to tell the aim of the study
3. Get into the technical elements of the study
4. What did you do in the project

In the achievements section, certificates, seminars, and webinars can be added. In the resume instead of hobbies area of interest should be added. The area of interest must be in a sentence and related to the job description according to the company recruitment. No need for a declaration and reference. If multiple languages are known then one can add a language session else not mandatory three technical and Non-technical skills can be included in the resume. Objectives have to be changed according to the companies' Job descriptions. A resume should not run beyond one page and too much color need to be avoided.

Then the research person entered the aptitude section. Aptitude section questions will come from four topics.

1. Quantitative
2. Logical reasoning
3. Verbal
4. Technical

He told that verbal tests are conducted to check your English language.

He gave 20-words and asked the students to write the synonyms of the words starting with P for example

1. PICTURE – PHOTO
2. GOOD LOOKING – PRETTY

After the lunch break, once after recalling the previous session Ice breaking session started. And then he entered into the group discussion topic. The skills needed for the group discussion were communication skills, negotiation skills, and team skills. These skills were told by the students.

But the resource person pointed out some skills to be expected in the group discussion by the HR managers they are as follows.

- Communication.
- Your confidence.
- Initiative.

- Concluder.
- Observation Skills.
- Being a team player.
- Time efficient.

Then he discussed DO and DONT in the group discussion. The candidate should speak on relevant topics with relevant statistics, participate with the team, and maintain eye contact with all other candidates, a person opposes the response politely, oppose should be done only when u have relevant facts, do not speak repeatedly, you have to validate other points too, do not disrespect your team members, give space for your team members. The resource person concluded his session and the next hour was handed over to Mr. Aravind.

Mr. Aravind carried forward the session for the next one hour by providing techniques to solve certain speed maths sums and shared some questions being asked in the Ramco Cements interview and helped in solving the sums.

OUTCOME OF THE PROGRAM:

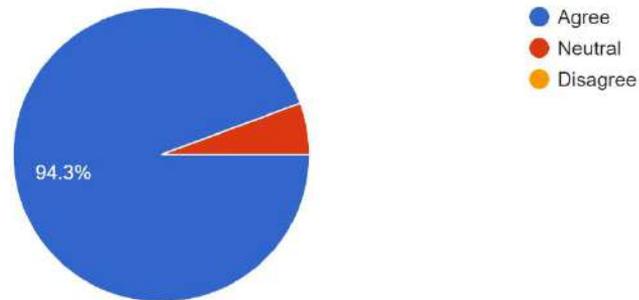

The workshop on employability skills was a very useful workshop for the students who are on the placement process and who are on the journey to face the placement process. The students got an insight into what the company expects from the new hires and how they should prepare themselves professionally for the placement drive.

The Resource person gave an overview of what is expected from the company's side and how a new hire should upgrade his/herself to face the competition. And then few guidelines were provided for the improvement of communication skills, how to work on creating a professional resume and the do's and don'ts of a Group discussion. Mr. Aravind in the next section provided some techniques to solve speed maths which would be helpful in clearing the aptitude section in an interview.
