

Class 3 A and B

Subject- English Literature

Topic- Ch-3 (Tenali Rama, the second)

Write them in your class work copy

Ch-3.

10-5-2021 Tenali Rama, the second.

Word	meaning
1) spotless	- very clean, without a spot
2) Curious	- wanting to know something
3) tattered	- torn
4) wailed	- cried.
5) plump	- chubby.
6) astonished	- surprised.
7) payasam	- a sweet dish made with milk, rice and sugar.

Q. Fill in the blanks -

1) The boys had an old, broken bed covered with a tattered piece of matting as the throne.

2) The boys could not decide who they wanted to play.

- 3) The man turned around to find a place to sit and watch the street show.
- 4) Kesava said his father was too poor to build a bamboo fence.
- 5) The boys were astonished to find out that someone was watching them.

11-5-2021

Q. Answer the following questions -

1) Where was the man going?

Ans- The man was going towards the palace of King Krishna Deva Raya.

2) What did the man find out on the way?

Ans- The man saw six small boys who were trying to act out a day in the royal court of Vijayanagar.

3) What suggestion did the man give to young Tenali?

Ans The man suggested to young Tenali that Kesava should send his goats to destroy the neighbour's garden.

4) Why was the man's suggestion not accepted by the group of boys?

Ans The man's suggestion was not accepted by the group of boys because Kesava's neighbour was a wrestler.

5) How did Tenali Rama the second finally solve the problem?

Ans- Tenali Rama, the second told Kesava to quickly milk the cow when it eats his pumpkins, to make payasam or ^{could} sell the milk to buy some pumpkins.

Q. Who said this to whom.

1) "I want to play the royal court's cleverest man"

Ans. The plump boy said this to his friends.

2) "Stop growing pumpkins,"

Ans. One courtier to Kesava.

3) "What do you like more, pumpkin or payasam?"

Ans. Little Tenali said this to Kesava.

4) "You are as clever as the real Tenali."

Ans. The man said this to little Tenali.

5) "You thought you were so clever."

Ans. Tenali Rama said this to himself.