

Ch. 2 - Pandora and the Hope Fairy.

Question and Answers.

Q1. Why was Pandora crying bitterly?

A1. Pandora was crying bitterly because she had been stung and was in great pain. It was for the first time anyone had ever felt pain.

Q2. Who were the ugly monsters? What did they do?

A2. The ugly monsters were evils like pain, death and greed. They brought troubles to the world.

Q3. Who was worth looking at?

A3. The Hope Fairy was worth looking at. She was so beautiful that one look at her was worth all the troubles in the world.

4. Why was Hope Fairy shut up in the box with all the troubles?

1. Hope Fairy was shut inside the box with all the troubles to give the people of the world hope in the middle of their troubles.

5. What is the message of the story?

5. The message of the story is never lose hope even in the times of trouble.

6. How would troubles ^{have} entered the world anyway?

6. The troubles would have entered the world anyways because if Pandora would'nt have opened the box someone else would have done it.

I. Read the lines and answer the following questions.

a) She was crying bitterly. Who was 'she'? Why was she crying bitterly?

Ans - She was Pandora. She was crying bitterly because she was badly stung and was in great pain.

b) 'You mean those ugly monsters?' What were those ugly monsters? What did they do?

Ans - The ugly monsters were evils like pain, death and greed. They brought troubles to the world.

c) 'A look at her was worth all the troubles!' Who was worth looking at? Why was she shut up in the box?

Ans - The Hope Fairy was worth looking at.

She was shut up in the box to give us hope in the middle of all troubles.

1) "Troubles would have got into the world anyway." Who said these words to whom? How would troubles have entered the world anyway?

The Hope Fairy said these words to Pandora. The troubles would have entered the world anyways because if Pandora wouldnt have opened the box someone else would have done it.

2) "I promise never to leave you." Who said these words to whom?

These words are said by the Hope Fairy to Pandora.