What our Guests say about Sikkim

"The Maharaj food was hot and fresh throughout even in remote Lachung"

We travelled to Sikkim with Heena in April 2026 – first time in Northeast India. We have no words to describe the beauty. Our tour manager Narendra bhai handled everything. He also made sure my mother-in-law was comfortable at every stop. The Maharaj food was hot and fresh throughout even in remote Lachung. Thanks to whole Heena Team.

Our tour manager organised basically everything. Food, vehicle and other guests everything was. Our Heena WhatsApp group still keeps everyone connected. Beautiful group experience.

Travel Tips for Sikkim

Documents required

6 passport-size colour photographs per person, original photo ID, and 2 photocopies of the ID. Acceptable ID: Driving Licence, Voter ID, or Passport. Aadhaar and PAN cards are not accepted in Sikkim — please carry one of the alternatives.

Overall

This region's appeal is its nature and eco-friendly atmosphere — not luxury infrastructure. We will provide our best of service but in this sector road conditions, hotels & vehicles are weaker than any other place in India so don't keep higher luxury expectations in this sector. Travellers who embrace this enjoy it most.

Health

Carry your regular medicines and a basic first aid kit. Pharmacies are scarce in remote stretches.

Clothing and gear

Summers are pleasant — a light jacket or sweater is enough. In winter and at higher elevations, pack multiple layers, and add thermals specifically for Lachung (Yumthang Valley) and Tshangu Lake (Gangtok). Hill rain showers can arrive anytime — carry a small umbrella or windcheater, and line your travel bag with plastic to protect clothes. Sunglasses, sunscreen, cap, and sports shoes are essential. Gum boots, long warm jackets, and gloves are available on rent at snow points — no need to buy.

Hotels

In this sector the hotels available offer only basic amenities.

Lachung is a remote mountain village near the Tibetan border, and hotels here offer only basic amenities. Most rooms do not have geysers — hot water is provided in buckets by hotel staff. Additionally, due to power shortage, room heating systems, such as room heaters, are not provided in most hotels. However, the hotelier does offer hot water bags for guest comfort. If the road to Lachung is closed, alternative accommodation will be arranged, subject to availability.

Drives and parking

Most hotels do not have parking at the entrance, and vehicles cannot wait at the gate for long. Please be ready in the lobby on time. In No Parking Zones, your vehicle will park nearby — please wait patiently for it to reach your pickup point through local traffic, and coordinate with the tour manager.

Tour operations

Our tour Manager reserves the rights to make changes or omit any place of visit, if it becomes necessary due to bad weather, bad road, strike or band, security reason.
