We recently did a tour of Japan and South korea with Forum. I was a little jittery about going with tour company in general as my experience before with a well-known tour company was not great. However as the tour progressed I really enjoyed myself. Three things really impressed me
1. The food cooked by our Rajashani chef was excellent in quality and widely varied. It was different culinary experience everyday. He even treated us to pasta (albeit indianised version) which I really enjoyed. Rameshbhai gets my full vote.
2. The tour manager/owner Forum was present with us thru out and took good care of us, it was her care of people not just overall but personalized which made us all feel part of a family and made the tour v. enjoyable.
3. They took us major points of interest and didn't waste our time in visiting commercially promoted ventures which is definitely a plus point.
I definitely recommend Forum tours greatly.
