DAY 01: ARRIVAL AT MOHAMED V AIRPORT TO TANGER

Arrival at Casablanca airport, welcome and meet your driver then transfer to Tangier, start your visit by getting a real feel for the city with an exploration of the medina, set in the lower part of tangier, surrounded by 15th-century, Portuguese's walls, it's a collection of stalls, shops, teahouses, riads and other businesses, connected by a weaving network of narrow streets and alleyways. Lunch Free Visit the petit socco (Little Square), a part of the medina which was once a gathering point for the wealthy and influential, and writers and artist during tangier's bohemian past, now it's a great place to sit and enjoy a mint tea at of the cafes while people - watching. Next visit the Kasbah Museum which can be found at the top of the hill in the medina. It is housed in the former Sultan's palace and is worth visiting for the building as much as the exhibitions of local artifacts it houses, which date back to prehistoric times. Lunch at leisure. Check in, overnight at the hotel.

DAY 02: TANGER

Breakfast at the hotel, meet your driver and your escort guide then, starting visiting head out of Tangier to Cape Spartel, the most north westerly point in Africa. Just 14km from the city, the point is marked by the Cap Spartel lighthouse that was built by an international coalition, including Morocco, the US, France, and Spain. Beneath the surface are the spectacular Caves of Hercules. Legend has it the Greek hero slept here on his way to steal the golden apples from the Garden of the Hesperides, this huge cave has been expanded over the centuries by Berbers quarrying the rock to make millstones. At the far end, you can see the Atlantic Ocean through an opening that was carved by the Phoenicians into the shape of Africa. Later in the day, take a stroll along the Corniche, which stretches for 5km along the length of the Bay of Tangier. You'll find vast sandy beaches, a sparkling marina, numerous restaurants, clubs, and shops, and a spectacular view that stretches right over to the shores of Europe. Lunch at leisure. Overnight at your hotel.
