APPOINTMENT LETTER

25th October, 2016

Dr. Chandra Sekar Shastry
#17, Byrappa Block, Sheshadripuram
Bangalore – 560 020

Dear Dr. Chandra Sekar Shastry,

We are glad to offer you a position of Director - Center for Distance Education & Virtual Learning at Jain University, (the "University") as per the terms and conditions mentioned in this appointment letter ("Letter"). Please note that the employment terms contained in this Letter are subject to such conditions and service rules as may be determined by the University from time to time.

1. Commencement of Employment:

- a. Your appointment with the University shall commence from 2nd November, 2016 (the "Commencement Date") and shall continue until terminated in accordance with the terms and conditions mentioned in this Letter.
- b. You will be on Probation for a period of 2 (two) years from the Commencement Date (the "Probation Period"). If, in the opinion of the University Appointments Committee, you are found suitable, your services will be continued.
- c. You will be liable for transfer in such capacity, as the University Appointments Committee may from time to time determine, to any other location or institution of the University. You will be governed by the terms and conditions of service applicable in the new assignment.

2. Compensation:

- a. You will be paid a gross salary of ₹1,25,000/- (Rupees One lakh twenty five thousand only) per month.

3. Retirement:

- a. You will retire from the services of the University on the last date of the month in which you attain the age of 60 (Sixty). The date of birth as recorded at the time of appointment shall be considered for this purpose.

4. Responsibilities:

- a. In view of your position and office, you must effectively, diligently and to the best of your ability perform all the tasks assigned to you and ensure results.
- b. You shall ensure that you will comply with all the policies of the University. Consequently, you are required to understand the scope and intent of the policies and comply with the same. You shall also ensure to update yourself with the change or updated policies, which the University may affect from time to time and comply with the same.
- c. It is also your responsibility to bring to the notice of the University, any such violations to the policies, committed by any other member of the University

- d. You may be transferred or required to travel for the University related works / training at the discretion of the University, from time to time or for short or long duration, should such a need arise.

5. Leave:

- a. You shall be eligible to such leave as is admissible under the leave policy of the University in force from time to time.

6. Conflict of Interest:

- a. You are required to devote your full time, attention and abilities to your job duties during working hours, and to act in the best interests of the University.
- b. You must not, without the prior written consent of the University, in any way directly or indirectly (i) be engaged or employed in, or (ii) be concerned with (in any capacity whatsoever), or (iii) provide services to, any other business or organisation where it is, or is likely to be, in conflict with the interests of the University or where it may adversely affect the efficient discharge of your duties.

7. Confidentiality:

- a. You shall keep strictly confidential any non-public information and materials belonging to, or kept or used by, the University, including without limitation any of the following which is non-public: any and all tangible and intangible information, data, documents, proposals, outlines, technical, conceptual or financial information, cost and pricing information; unannounced business relationships, information relating to research, products, software, services, development, inventions, processes, engineering, designs and patterns, processes and formulas, methods, techniques, programs or source code; customer contacts, names, addresses, telephone / fax / telex numbers, email addresses, economic, loan or investor information; commercialisation, monetisation and research strategies, vendors, trade secrets and know-how disclosed by the University to you, in oral, written, graphic, recorded, photographic, any machine-readable or in any other medium or form relating to the intellectual property, business and goodwill of the University ("Confidential Information").
- b. You may disclose, use, reproduce, transmit, distribute, sub-license, broadcast, disseminate or prepare derivative works of the Confidential Information or the Work only if, and to the extent, (i) necessary for performing your duties under this employment, (ii) expressly authorised by the University in writing, or (iii) required by any laws of India.
- c. In the event you are required to disclose any Confidential Information pursuant to the requirements under the laws of India, then you shall notify the University of such requirement at the earliest and do everything in your power and capacity to allow the University to minimize any disclosure required therefrom.
- d. Immediately upon the termination of this Letter or on a request made by the University, and except to the extent that any applicable law prevents you from doing so, you must return to the University, or destroy as the University directs, all materials recording, containing, setting out or making reference to the Confidential Information and all costs involved in either returning or destroying such materials are to be solely borne by you.

- e. As a member of the university, you may gain access to such information that may be considered "confidential" by the university. Therefore you shall not divulge any confidential information to anyone outside the university or to anyone inside who is not entitled to such information.

8. Intellectual Property:

- a. You acknowledge that the University will provide you with training and course material and other intellectual property developed by the University for your use during your engagement with the University and shall be returned by you to the University upon your ceasing to be engaged by the University. If you fail to do so, the University may withhold payment of your dues, if any, and/or take such steps as may be called for to recover them from you. You will be responsible for all such items or property and shall immediately report loss of property, if any, in your possession to the University for taking necessary action in this regard. Failure to do so will automatically entitle the University to recover any loss amount from you.
- b. You acknowledge and agree that any content, courseware, tests, articles and other information, documents, data which may be in written, graphic, photographic or any machine-readable format ("Work") created by you during and in the course of your employment is being created by as a "work made for hire" under the applicable law and, at all stages of development, the Work shall be and remain the sole and exclusive property of the University. At the University's sole, absolute and unfettered discretion, the University may make any changes in, deletions from, or additions to the Work. If for any reason the Work is determined at any time not to be a work made for hire, you hereby grant an irrevocable, royalty free transfer and assign to the University all rights, titles and interest in the Work.
- c. Upon a written request made by the University, you shall sign all documents, deeds or declarations necessary to confirm or perfect the exclusive ownership of the University in the Work.

9. Indemnification:

- a. You agree to indemnify, and keep indemnified, the University and its officers, agents, employees, consultants or affiliates against any damage, loss, cost, expense (including, without limitation, attorney fees, court costs, legal fees and expenses) or liability incurred by the University or a claim, action, proceeding or demand made against the University, either directly or indirectly, arising due to your breach of the terms and conditions of this Letter, and whether present or future, fixed or unascertained, actual or contingent.

10. General:

- a. This employment is offered to you by the University on the understanding that all the information given by you or the data provided prior to and / or at the time of joining is true and correct. If it is found at any time that the information given by you is not true or correct or you have knowingly suppressed any information which you ought to have disclosed to the University, the University shall have the right to terminate your appointment with the University with immediate effect and without any obligation to you whatsoever.

11. Termination:

- a. Either party may terminate the employment by giving 1 (one) month working day's notice in writing to the other party, if such termination occurs with the Probationary Period, or by giving 3 (three) months notice period, if such termination occurs after the confirmation of employment (the "Termination Notice"). The University reserves the right to pay or recover the salary in lieu of the notice period, as the case may be. The University reserves the right to, at its sole discretion, to relieve you of your roles and responsibilities under the current employment at any date prior to the expiry of the Termination Notice without assigning any reasons.
- b. On acceptance of the Termination Notice, you shall ensure to handover all the materials of the University in your possession including, but not limited to library books, presentation materials, data, literature, drawings, documents and any Confidential Information belonging to the University.
- c. Your obligations mentioned in paragraph 7, paragraph 8 and paragraph 9 shall survive the termination of your employment under this Letter.

You agree that the interpretation and enforcement of this Letter shall be governed by the laws of India and all disputes under this Letter shall be governed by the provisions of Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The venue for arbitration will be Bangalore.

Please confirm that the above terms mentioned in this Letter are acceptable to you and that you accept the appointment by signing a copy of this Letter.

We look forward to your positive contribution to the growth of the University and a successful career with us.

For Jain University,

N V H Krishnan
Registrar
