

Lesson Outline - Modals

Learning outcome	By the end of this unit, students will be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none">● Illustrate the kinds of modals with their examples.● differentiate between the modals used for possibility, obligation, and necessity by identifying these types of modals in the language around them.● demonstrate an ability to reason deductively using modal forms.
Total classes recommended	2 Instructional classes
To begin with	The prep worksheet will help students understand the different ways modals are used in sentences.
Video Viewing	Kindly play the video that is recommended and stop and explain as per your discretion. Do the 'let's Learn Together' part in the worksheet along with students.
Explain	Let the students know some of the chief features of modals- <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Modals stand independent in question tags.2. Modals do not change form with persons.3. Modals do not change form with numbers.4. Modals do not change form with the gender.5. Modals always take the original form of a verb. You could refer to the additional resources to help students understand better.
Worksheet	Class 1: Modal Prep class - Worksheet prep Class 2: Modals worksheet 1 While Students attempt the worksheet, have students do the exercises in pairs first and then revisit and revise the same along with them.
NOTE:	Modals are assessed in the form of error correction and gap fill or dialogues as given in the Exam prep exercises.