Ex. 2.2: Let's read and answer the following questions:

Jagga Jadugar: Hello children! Today I am going to show you the 'Magic of Sounds'.

He picks up Vidya's magic potli, puts his hand inside and pulls out the Letter Ss.

Jagga Jadugar: We have the Letter Ss, it says /s/. Who can tell me a word starting with /s/?

Alok (excitedly): Sun! Sand!

Vidya: Sandwich!

Jagga Jadugar: Excellent!

Jagga Jadugar: Hmm, I'm hungry. Let's get something to eat out of this potli.

He pulls out Letter Aa.

Jagga Jadugar: Letter Aa says /a/, can anyone tell me what I can eat that starts with /a/?

Vidya: Apple!

Jagga Jadugar: Yes! Try more words with /a/.

Vidya: Ant! Astronaut!

Ex. 2.4: Let's read and answer the following questions:

Jagga Jadugar: Lovely! Now, let me show you some more magic.

He then says /a/ and /t/, and they come dancing. The two sounds blend together to form 'at'.

Vidya: Wow!

Jagga Jadugar: Yes, when two or more sounds combine they form a new word. Ok! Now let us create three-letter words with 'at' by adding another sound to it. (Asking the sound) /s/ stand before /at/.

What do they make?

Vidya: It's Sat!

Jagga Jadugar: Two more sounds please, /i/ and /n/ come dancing and combine to form 'in'. If you put a P in front, it becomes?

Alok: Pin!

Jagga Jadugar: That's right. What a lovely audience. Let's end today's show with some eating and dancing.

Vidya and Alok: Yay! Let's dance to the music!

7. What did /a/ and /t/ do together?

- a. fight b. dance c. sing

8. What happens when you put P in front of /i/ and /n/?
