EX.2.1 Answer the following questions:

Vidya spots a boy sitting alone under the huge banyan tree.

Vidya: Who is that boy and why is he always sitting alone during the lunch break?

Raghu: He is Anil. He is new to our school. He is in Radha's class.

Radha: Oh, him? We call him Silly Anil. He is always quiet and does not talk to anyone in class, not even to our teacher.

Alok: That does not make him silly. Maybe he is shy, or he misses his old school and friends.

Vidya and Alok both agree that Anil must be feeling left out and lonely. They feel very sad and decide that they must do something to help.

1. When was the new boy sitting under the banyan tree?

Ans.: _____

2. Why did Radha say they call the new boy 'Silly Anil'?

EX.2.2 Answer the following questions:

Alok looks at Vidya and asks, "Vidya, is it right for Radha and others to not be friends with Anil just because he does not answer in class?"

Vidya replies, "Of course not! It is not right on our part to look down on anyone. In fact, we should be friends with him, and let him know our school is so much fun."

Alok then sees Anil standing near the banyan tree. He calls out to Anil, and offers him a turn on the swing. Anil gives an ear-to-ear smile, and comes running towards the swing. Vidya is happy that her brother was able to break the ice with Anil.

Vidya says, "Come on boys, let's reach home before it gets dark."

3. What did Alok do after school?
