Everyone on the street knew the old man, who lived at house number 15. He was scary and strange. He never, ever came outside and he would peer out of the curtains with an evil look in his eyes. One day the children were playing, when Jeetu's ball bounced across the road and onto the old man's grass. "Just leave it!" whispered Suresh. "But it's our only ball" replied Jeetu. They crept onto the lawn but just as they were about to retrieve the ball, the old man appeared and screamed, "GET OFF MY GARDEN!". The boys jumped high into the air and bolted back home. They locked all the doors, closed the curtains and sat trembling on the floor. To this day, their ball still lies on the old man's garden.
