

KATHA CLUB

The katha club motivates our young storytellers to decipher their literary capabilities and grooms them to deliver their unsurpassed excellence as storytellers. The club regularly organizes storytelling and story writing sessions to keep the members apprised and updated, it also provides them with a platform to display and share their creative literate instincts with the other members and audiences. The club also conducts role-plays and story enactments and attributes a new dimension to the ancient art of storytelling.