

VIVIDH

Activity-clubs for work-education

ECO CLUB

The club is dedicated to the champions of the cause of environment. The students get a first-hand experience of how the young can take care of its future by taking concrete steps today. The club to its credit has initiatives against defacement of property, various tree plantation drives and cleanliness drives. The children have been raising their voices to promote a pollution free environment.