

POTTERY CLUB

This exciting, creative journey into the world of clay has given children a voice to articulate their emotions, intuition, and form or idea without words. Children, through this pliable and fascinating medium lose themselves in the act of creation, while developing confidence, perspective, flexibility, and independent thinking.