TRIO'S TAKE ON.....

Dr.Jagpreet Singh, _Headmaster

Q1. How do you think this Founders' will be different from the others we've had?

- A. The Chief Guest of course! He's a public school product himself and it will be something special to have his feedback about our school and he being the chairman of the board, it is something I am looking forward to.

Q2. Any message you wish to pass on through the newsletter?

- A. "Watch out ! The Nabhaites are coming."
B. QII. This being your first Founders', what do you think about the preparations and what are your expectations from it?

Mr.Gary Everett,_Deputy Headmaster

- A. We'll work day in and day out on the show and make it all perfect.

Mr. Ankur Birkett, Bursar

- A. It is a big event, biggest in the region I suppose, the governor is going to be here and I want all you guys and the staff as well to put their best foot forward and I am sure it is going to be amazing. All the best, rise and shine and keep it up!

Bites from the last evening....

The mini- founders comprised of the fun-filled evening with variety entertainment programme and prize-distribution ceremony. We didn't leave the opportunity to interview our Chief-Guest (Mini-Founders') Dr Satish Jain (Roll of Honour Awardee-2016)

Q1. Which event of the Variety Entertainment Programme did you find the best?

A. The ghoomar dance definitely, it was of quality. I told the headmaster that the group should participate in a television dance show as the performance was of a very high standard.

Q2. Your alma matar showcased a presentation highlighting some of your best memories, which one touched you deeply?

A. That is a tough question as all of it was very overwhelming, but the very first picture was the best because I was no more than an year old when that picture was taken.

Q3. One words –:

- i) First impression of the school – WOW!
- ii) One thing which was better in your school days – No girls! (laughs)
- iii) Exhibitions – Excellent!
- iv) What is more special being a doctor or a Chief Guest at your own school? – A doctor, always!

Q4. One naughty memory of you as a student.

A. Bath in the junior school, there was a wall in the front but no partition so all of us used to take bath without our clothes on and that too in front of Ms. Pannu and not find anything awkward about it.

How other guests summed up the evening. . .

A. “It was thrilling, I am sure the school has a great future ahead!”

-Mr. G.S. Punia (Ex-Bursar, PPS)

B. (Placing a soft peck on our psychology teacher) “It is amazing and beyond words to see the school growing; where it is meant to be.” -Mrs. Tandon (Mrs KPK Pannu)- Ex teacher, PPS Nabha.

Lights, Joy, Sweets & Smiles.

HAPPY DIWALI-2016

Everyone begins to clean their homes, bedeck them, and adorn them with alluring lights as they believe that goddess Lakshmi will visit their homes. The Rituals and pooja do not excite a child, what we all look forward to is the crackers, gifts and goodies.

I, personally have given up crackers and we all are well aware of the nuisances involved, (increasing levels of pollution, etc.) Just an appeal from the Eagle's Eyrie, please avoid crackers this Diwali and spread the word to everyone around.

I, on behalf of the Eagle's Eyrie would like to take the opportunity to wish all the guests, parents, teachers, (who are also parents, double greetings for them.), students and every member of their family a very happy, upbeat, jubilant and a blooming Diwali.

PLAY SAFE!!.....

Happy Holidays and see you soon back in our “Eyrie.”
