

MBS INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL
WORKSHOP FOR TEACHERS
SESSION 2017-18

TOPIC: STORY TELLING ACTIVITY

DATE: DECEMBER 1, 2017

ATTENDED BY: Ms. JYOTI KHANIJOW

VENUE: SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

RESOURCE PERSON: Ms. MALA PALANI

Oxford University Press organized a storytelling workshop for all language teachers with the enigmatic storyteller, experienced English language teacher and teacher trainer, Ms. Mala Palani on Friday, December 1, 2017.

The workshop entailed Ms. Palani engaging teachers in warm up exercises that set the mood and built anticipation among all. The workshop on Story-telling Activities was conducted by Mala Palani, who emphasized on the need to create compelling stories with coherent narrative structure with attention to detail, descriptive language, and a clear focus on learning outcomes.

She highlighted the essential elements of storytelling and demonstrated the techniques employed to captivate the audience. She enlisted the benefits of storytelling and shed light on how it caters to the different types of learners may it be of any age group. She emphasized and elaborated on how teachers can harness the power of stories to engage learners emotionally and biochemically to create rich learning experiences in understanding not just languages but also Science, Mathematics, Social science.

The session saw active participation and instilled more confidence in teachers equipping them with the art of narrating a story through innovative and lively activities conducted by Ms Palani. The workshop was informative and was enjoyed by all.