

BRAIN INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

Class: IX

ENGLISH

July

Descriptive Paragraph Writing

1. Weave an interesting story using the given beginning around it in about 100-120 words.
One dark, cloudy and frightful night, I was suddenly awakened by a dazzling light. Still not completely shaken out of my slumber, I saw, from the window of my room....

The Snake and the Mirror

2. What circumstances prompted the doctor to live in a small, poor house?
3. As he looked at himself in the mirror, which two ‘important’ and ‘earth-shaking’ decisions did the doctor make?

My Childhood

4. What were the qualities that Abdul Kalam admired in his parents?
5. Kalam’s childhood was a secure one both materially and emotionally. Illustrate.

Happy Prince

6. Why did the bird think he had a ‘golden bedroom’?
7. What are the two most precious things that the Angels find in the city?

Grammar

8. Fill in the blanks with the options given in brackets.

It won't make my face (a)..... (change, changed, changes, changing). Do you know, one day, a woman (b)..... (go, going, went, gone) by me (c)..... (at, in, of, on) the street. I (d)..... (am, was, where, is) at a bus-stop and she was (e).....(along, with, in, without) another woman. She (f)..... (look, looks, looked, looking) at me, and she said, “Look at that, that’s a terrible thing.”