

BRAIN INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

SUBJECT: PSYCHOLOGY

CLASS XII

APRIL '21

CHAPTER 1: VARIATIONS IN PSYCHOLOGICAL ATTRIBUTES

1. Learning alphabets and digits is an example of successive processing. TRUE/FALSE.
2. Calculate the MA of 10-year-old boy who has an IQ of 120.
3. A student with high aptitude in verbal reasoning and strong interests in reading is more likely to succeed as a _____.
 - (a) Journalist
 - (b) Engineer
 - (c) Athlete
 - (d) Agriculturalist
4. Dipa Karmakar is the first Indian gymnast to qualify for the Rio Olympics 2016. According to psychologists, Dipa would be high on _____ interest.
 - (a) Spatial
 - (b) Interpersonal
 - (c) Naturalistic
 - (d) Bodily – Kinesthetic
5. Dr. kumar, a famous heart surgeon, would be high on _____ intelligence.
 - (a) Interpersonal
 - (b) Linguistic
 - (c) Naturalistic
 - (d) Bodily-kinesthetic
6. The theory that assumes intelligence as one similar set of abilities is called _____.
7. Why is emotional intelligence receiving increasing attention of educators?
8. What is Giftedness? State its characteristic.
9. How is creativity related to intelligence? Differentiate between creativity tests and intelligence tests.
10. Is intelligence inherited? Discuss.
11. IQ distribution across the population takes the bell-shaped curve. Comment.
12. Some of the very famous musicians like Adele, Bryn Adams and Louis Armstrong either didn't go to high school or were dropouts. In light of the same, analyze your understanding of the relationship between intelligence and creativity.