

Inter-school Sanskrit Navarasa Competition

On 19th April 2016 Amity Institute of Education, New Delhi organized an Inter-school Sanskrit Navarasa Competition on the theme: “Bhavnayo ke Rang, Navrasa ke Sang, Jiwan me Utaarey hum, Sanskrit ke Sang” at Amity Campus, Saket, New Delhi.

Over 25 schools from Delhi/ NCR participated in the Competition. Our school presented “Rsansh” Dance in which our students of class IXth and Xth have depicted shant and Rodra rasa of Shiva, vir and vibhats of Kali.

Prof. P. N. Shastri, ViceChancellor, Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan, New Delhi, Prof.R. K. Pandey, Vice Chancellor, Shri Lal Bahadur Shastri Rashtriya SanskritVidhyalaya, New Delhi, Dr. Jeet Ram Bhatt,Secretary, Delhi Sanskrit Academy, New Delhi along with Dr. Ranjana Bhatia, Principal, Amity Institute of Education, Saket lit the inaugural lamp, marking the commencement of the Competition.

Dr Ranjana Bhatia thanked the dignitaries for their benign presence.

TheCompetition started with scintillating performances by the students of various schools in the form of skits, powerful dramatic performances, lyrical poems, shlokas and dances to showcase all the nine Rasas. Lasting for about two hours,the performances were engrossing and powerful, keeping the audience excitedthroughout.

The Third position was bagged by the students from by Sadhu Vaswani International School for Girls. New Delhi.

Each participant was presented with a Certificate of Participation and a small book.