

Inter-School Veggie Soya Delight Competition 2015

Sadhu Vaswani International School for Girls organized an Inter-School Veggie Soya Delight Competition 2015 on 29 October based on the ideology of our Revered founder, Dada J P Vaswani. The theme of the event was to celebrate vegetarianism and promoting nutritional value of food through innovative recipes. A team of two students from 12 schools participated in the event.

Sadhu vaswani school secured the first position, but being the host school, their trophy was rolled over to the students of Bluebells International School. The two students Rashmin Kaur and Ravneet Kaur prepared the soya dosa.
