

English Holiday Homework Class 4

(2021-2022)

IDIOM MAGIC

Learning Outcome: Students will be able to respond verbally / in writing in English, on day-to-day experiences.

Description-English is an interesting language, it uses expressions or phrases called IDIOMS from different aspects of our everyday life and activities like our body parts, food, clothes etc, which makes our writing and speech colourful and powerful.

Let's learn Idioms that are based on body parts- 'arms of a chair' foot of a mountain', head of the family', etc.

Material required -The activity may be done in a notebook/paper and the pictures uploaded directly or on the pallet.

Methodology-Please watch the following YouTube videos for clarity on the topic-

Then research and write about three other idioms and their actual meaning that are based on our body parts and two idioms that you find interesting of your choice. You can explain and illustrate each idiom in any way you like (literal/humorous way/figurative) through a video.

Time:2 hrs.

Eg.

Method of submission - Please attach everything that you want to showcase (video of explanation and pictures of your artwork) all together on the Padlet link posted in the google classroom or directly under the assignment created by the teacher on google classroom.
