To me

Ignatius Joseph is a well known peace artist and dedicated his life for the cause of humanity. Through his art he placed himself in the academic and artist world. Present world is passing through the critical phase of human history where matter dominates over spirit. He is a torch bearer of nonviolence and spreading ahimsa by his creative work selflessly. Thousands and thousands of youth got inspiration from his work. One can see the combination of integration of Head, Heart and Hand in his work. In this contemporary world we need peace, harmony, tranquility, love, dedication and respect for all religions and one can find all these in his work. His work is his asset. I have known him and his work for three decades. He established himself as a peace preacher and worked for the upliftment of downtrodden. The present work is worth reading and hope present generation will learn a lot from the insight and knowledge of Ignatius' vast experience and imagination.

Life is an unknown journey to an unknown destination. God bless you.

To me

Dear Ignatius,

I hope this statement is ideal for your needs:

"Ignatius Xavier is a well-known Indian artist who specializes in using art to open students' minds to the real potential of non-violence to change the world for the better. I have met him many times in India at international conferences organized largely by the Jain community, and his presentations are always fascinating and uplifting. It is good that he has now put some of his vision and creativity into a book where his message of ahimsa can reach a much wider audience."

Hi! Peace to you friends, Specially Dear Students

The world knows many instance of ragging, painful death, etc. to stop this we must act, Specially the Student community.

Students are the future of the world, the tiny buds should not be ragged or troubled unnecessarily for no fault of the student, If any mental student treys to rag any student then the neighboring student must immediately act and inform the authorities by this way you save your co-student, don't be afraid, he will not do anything to you since the guilty will be punished in the college, Court of Law and the society will screw him tight. By this way Ragging will vanish.

So, dear students its in your hand to do the needful for your co students.

Spread the message, forward the mail to your friend, You can have an Ahimsa Workshop in your Institution to counter Ragging, I am ready.

Thanking you, peace be with you friends specially students

In total 5 paintings have been done by the Ahimsa Artist and the Students in 4 different places from Kathmandu to Dang, all the topic relates to PEACE.

Two painting RICE FOR PEACE emphasizes the students to become Bio-Aggro-Green-Agriculture Scientist to boost the production of Rice to 40 percent.. Every inch of the land is cultivated in NEPAL with no extra land. The Artist has given new inputs to acquire and reclaim land from above river/road side to produce more RICE and increase the yield to 40 Percent.

Dear Ignatius Sir,

It's a great pleasure to hear that you're penning a book on Ahimsa. Since two decades ago when we first met and visited various institutions, Schools and Religious places to exhibit your caliber and Ahimsaism paintings is virtue of your exemplary work of your painting passion-that too your microscopic thinking of not to use any brush which has animal fur, painting with cloth & colours that are natural this basic process you adopted is not to harm any living being, Ahimsa even in usage speaks of your love, passion and adhering thoughts of Ahimsa, yet to see such a great Ahimsic painter and ardent and staunch follower of non violence (Ahimsa).

The students and community were very fortunate to get trained by you in various classes in Tamilnadu which you taught how painting can promote love and peace through Ahimsa.

Your lectures inflicted with great idiom of Live and let Live was thought provoking, transformative and outreach to promote values of life in thoughts, deeds or action was the most wonderful service yet to hear from other parts of the Globe.

Your paintings are of immense value to see the secularism & Ahimsa values where you left no stone unturned to iconic paintings which are a treasure in the gallery of paintings. Adding to it speaks of the art nationalism and patriotism format is the most unique in its style and finish.

The vegetarianism methodology and philosophy of Jainism (sect) adopted is unparalleled and unimaginable one.

My heartfelt congratulations for being the true ambassador to promote unity, brotherhood and non violence through painting is par excellence.

Wishing you all the best to reach greater heights.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

Preface

Ahimsaism Book is not just a Painting book alone, but it provides a clear picture how a Fine Arts Student must project his art work and focus how he can penetrate, stream into International forums to present art along with paper presentation on the given topic or theme of organization which is conducting the conference. First you have to look out for the organization which is going to hold the conference secondly you has to impress the organizing committee with your ability, convince them. Then only they will select you from many presenters.

Organizing commit will provide details to anyone who approaches them. Or through bulletin, internet, etc. Study the conference theme and design an appropriate painting according to the given topic towards the subject, and prepare the paper along with painting and submit, I hope this will do.

Try to contact spiritual leaders or your known guru let them know that you want to do a painting on Peace or Ahimsa topic and request them to open your paintings. If they agree then your painting will be opened in front of a big congregation.

My paintings opened by Dr.APJ. Abdul Kalam, Madam Sonia Gandhi, and spiritual leaders, Ministers, Peace activist moreover I opened paintings inside Jain Temples ‘Sthanak’ creating history even photograph was not allowed inside earlier.

God has give you great Art imagination and talent, don’t keep it to yourself, share it with other Students, since many Students are not good in Art teach them hold camps, workshops for Students; contact Principles, Head mistress to do this project, etc.

Hold camps for Students in collaboration with any Ngo, Lion’s club, corporate etc. Teach them Art on different topics like Non Violence, Peace, Environment etc.

While trying to do good works in the world, Black cat may cross your path “don’t worry” try to persuade and eliminate the hurdle which the Black cat has created, many persons will try to pull you leg in the corrupt World, be patience good spirits will guide you to nice persons who will solve the erupting problem with ease. So, you are the winner. Have you heard the English song “ winner takes it all”.

In my Art life; many hurdles came in different forms, because World is corrupt in some way or the other you will learn when you turn Ahimsaism pages, I have let known in my chapters you can find.

My methodology of teachings appreciated by ‘United Nation, Zero Projects’ and awarded among 16000 participated Ngo’s, for project done along with CHAI, traveled many States to conduct Grass Roots comics; this will be expressed in my next Book.
