RESOURCE PERSON:

Dr.P.LEELAVATHI, Lecturer, Govt.College, Payakapuram, Vijayawada.

DESCRIPTION OF THE PROGRAMME:

The guest lecture on “Digital Freedom: The Human Rights of the 21st Century” explained that digital rights are not limited to technology but are also part of the basic freedoms protected by the Indian Constitution and the Supreme Court. The speaker discussed important rights under Article 21, such as the right to a dignified life, health, education, and privacy, and emphasized that these rights should be used responsibly. Later, the College Principal addressed the gathering and stated that the Indian Constitution ensures freedom, equality, and human rights, especially economic, social, and cultural rights, to provide equal opportunities for all.
