

All documents and forms must be printed on A4 size paper. Signatures should be as per the PAN Card (if not, alternative proof should be provided). Fill the forms as per the proofs provided. For joint accounts, a separate KYC form and proof are required for all the holders. Second and third holders (if any) must sign only the demat form marked S and T. The first holder's correspondence address should be filled in the demat form. All communication for the joint demat account will only go to the first holder. The first holder's bank proof must be submitted along with the supporting documents.
