

1. All documents and forms must be printed on A4-size paper.
2. Signatures should match those on the PAN Card (if not, alternative proof of identity should be provided).
3. Fill out the forms according to the provided proofs. For joint accounts, a separate KYC form and proof are required for all the holders.
4. Second and third holders must sign only the demat form marked 'S' and 'T'.
5. The first holder's correspondence address should be filled in the demat form.
6. All communication regarding the joint demat account will be directed only to the first holder.
7. The first holder's bank proof must be submitted along with the supporting documents.
