About Awign (<http://www.awign.com>):

Founded by a team of IIT alumni with multi-industry experience in management consulting, computer science and data science, we are building a new face of outsourcing at Awign. We are an outsourcing company for executing high volume on/off field distributed operations and sales, and get the work done through college students. Every project gets converted into short-time, part-time tasks or an internship. We manage everything end to end with our product and bill a client only on the deliverables.

Currently operational in more than 130 cities, we cater to 7 project verticals namely - due diligence & background verification, auditing, supply acquisition, demand acquisition, on-field training, high volume calling and data moderation. We are a funded startup backed by a venture capitalist based out of India & US.
