TRIP Overview

About THE Place

Kedarnath and Badrinath are two of the holiest pilgrimage sites in India, nestled in the Himalayas of Uttarakhand. Kedarnath, dedicated to Lord Shiva, is one of the 12 Jyotirlingas and stands at an altitude of 3,583 meters. The temple is surrounded by stunning snow-capped peaks, and reaching it requires a 16 km trek from Gaurikund. The journey is both spiritual and adventurous, offering breathtaking views of rivers and valleys.

Badrinath, dedicated to Lord Vishnu, is another significant pilgrimage site at an altitude of 3,300 meters. It is believed that Lord Vishnu meditated here, and Adi Shankaracharya re-established the temple in the 8th century. The scenic route to Badrinath passes through the Alaknanda River, lush valleys, and the famous Tapt Kund hot springs. Visiting these sacred sites is not just about devotion but also about experiencing the serene beauty of the Himalayas.

Please Note

According to last year's report, over 13,000 yatris visited Kedarnath Dham and other Dhams daily during the pilgrimage season.

The situation this year has drastically changed, with many groups facing challenges such as overcrowding, traffic delays, landslides, and other difficulties during the Dham Yatra. While these issues may also impact our journey, our dedicated tour managers will put in their maximum effort to ensure your Dham Yatra is smooth, safe, and successful.
