

Guidelines how us Essay Writing Service

Guidelines for writing essays and drafting researches

What is an Essay?

The essay is a short essay-reasoning in a free style. The essay expresses individual impressions and considerations on a specific issue and does not claim to an exhaustive interpretation of the subject. The essay shows the level of self creative thinking, the ability to structure information, identify causal relationships and argue their conclusions.

What are the requirements for a motivational essay?

For the successful preparation of the statement of purpose, it is desirable to reflect: compliance programs masters/doctoral goals and objectives personal career development; motives for choosing this program and entering the Academy; understanding of acquired professional competences after completion trainings.

- The essay must meet the requirements of academic writing, i.e. be structured (introduction, argumentative and analytical part, conclusions) and not
- must contain grammatical, spelling and stylistic errors, and literary sources should be used correctly; The essay should not exceed 500 words. Exceeding the number of words may lead to lower scores;
- Essays should not contain borrowings without reference to the source of borrowing.
- All essays are tested for plagiarism and, if the original text of the essay is below 75%, will be deducted 1 point out of a possible 5 points.

For example visit this essay writing service and order some paper

What are the requirements for an essay in the specialty?

For successful preparation of the essay in the specialty we recommend demonstrate:

- 📖 Critical thinking;
- 📖 Understanding the subject area;
- 📖 Professional knowledge of the problem and strategic vision of its solution;
- 📖 Logic and argumentation in the presentation of thought.

The essay must meet the requirements of academic writing, i.e. be structured (introduction, argumentative and analytical part, conclusions) and not must contain grammatical, spelling and stylistic errors, and literary sources should be used correctly;

- 🕒 The essay should not exceed 500 words (excluding bibliography). Excess the number of words can lead to a lower score;
- 🕒 Essay must contain a bibliography containing references to sources;
- 🕒 All essays are tested for plagiarism and, if the original text of the essay will be below 75%, deducted 1 point out of 10 possible points.